

Catalina González,

Bio/Catalina González (CL) visual artist, in her multidisciplinary practice she has developed time base media works, exploring the possibilities behind landscape, where she articulates issues about ecology, industry and memory in the face of certain historical events such as colonialism. González's, received different recognitions and prizes for her work in Chile and abroad and she has participated in artistic residencies such as AIR Austria, AIAV Akiyoshidai Japan, Izolyatsia Kiev and in Rijksakademie until 2021. She currently lives between the city of Amsterdam and Chile, in Concón where she is developing her latest production of work "Following the sun".